The Chautauqua Slogan.

The Mountainair Chautauqua now has a slogan which, in a manner of speaking, is some slogan and will be heard all over New Mexico next summer. W. M. McCoy, secretary of the Chautauqua, was in the city yesterday and says that the plans for next summer's event are progressing rapidly and it is down on the schedule to have the very best thing of the kind ever seen in the southwest. Mr. McCoy in selecting the slogan wisely went to a first class source for it and sent a number of submitted efforts to E. L. Vandegrift, editor of "The Earth." The following letter received from Mr. Vandegrift speaks for itself:

"Chicago, Dec. 18, 1911.

W. M. McCoy, Secretary,
Mountainair, N. M.,

Dear Sir:-

The 'sub-committee' to whom I referred your communication for advice, selects No. 8, and I agree. It signifies popularity of your Chautauqua, anticipated pleasure, reunions of old friends, and the like, more than any other of the list submitted, which I believe is a prestige a new Chautauqua should establish before it can get very far. In making a selection, the 'sub-committee' narrowed the choice down to four, and from these chose No. 8. The 'sub-committee' was Mrs. Vandegrift and our daughter, who, in the sifting process, hesitated between No. 8 and No. 6, finally deciding upon No. 8. Then, without informing me of their choice, the whole list was submitted to me, and I too, selected No. 8. So you see No. 8 is the choice of the editor of 'The Earth,' and the unanimous choice of this household.

Therefore,

'Ho, ho, away for Mountainair,

For all the other folks are there!'

Thank you for your invitation to come to your Chautauqua. I will be there in 1912.

Yours truly,

F. L. Vandegrift"

For Women

Chicago, Jan. 10.—This is what American women will wear the coming year, as disclosed today by the style congress held here by the ladies tailors and dressmakers as association of America:

No hobble skirt. Dresses must be two and a half yards wide, three fourths of a yard wider than the hobble. They must be short—three inches from the ground. Blue and white are the colors and the materials, whipcords.

Jackets are to be twenty six or twenty-eight inches long; close fitting. Empires must be forgotten. If any waistline is affected it must be "at the waist or lower." Revers and sailor collars will be tabooed, but collars will be of color different from the coat. No changes are ordered in plain tailored gowns or suits.

The announcement was made tonight after all visitors had left the headquarters and in advance of the dressmakers' show tomorrow.

Woman's Club Session

The Women's Club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Morton Senter on Tuesday afternoon with Mesdames Stubblefield, Travis, Ewing, Mason, Jensen, Pickens, Hanlon, Cowgill, Senter, and Miss Simon present. Visitors were Miss Brown and Mrs. Kemp. A couple of hours were spent in embroidery. When meeting was called to order to make further arrangements for the coming Lyceum Course which will be Friday nights and dues for the month of January were received and several other little matters of business arranged for. Quite a number discussed ways and means by which we might make our club as useful as well as a pleasant organization, after business was concluded, the Hostesses, Mrs. Senter and Miss Simmons, served one of the most delectable luncheons we have ever partaken of. A baffling dish menu of three courses was served and all went to their several homes feeling that they had spent a profitable as well as a pleasant

THE AUTOCRAT OF THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Now, kindly mark me well, my friends, in what I have to say. Anent the coffee of this morn and that of yesterday. That coffee served us yesterday was slaty-gray and flat, And I who know the coffee plant know what is meant by that. The berry grow indifferent from out impoverished soil, Nor had the richness at its roots from which to draw the oil. Or, if a bit of oil were stored, the roasting was not well, And being charred the oil escaped from out each tiny cell. And so 'twas tasteless, flat and tame, and I put in my kick; And I am pleased that Mrs. Brown has changed her brand so quick. This coffee has a brilliant brown, its body, too, you'll note; Those little bubbles mark the oil—observe them where they float. That means the berry had the best that sun and soil can lend— 'Tis CHASE & SANBORN'S growth, you know—a firm that's proud to spend its time and money on its plants. Care, curing, roasting, too, Are just the best that expert hands, experienced long, can do. And when this richness is unlocked by Nature's charm of heat, You have the best that Nature gives,—a draught of cheer, complete In every coffee attribute. Thus speaks your Autocrat, And he, you know, was never caught a-talking through his hat.
